Discussion 4 (Proposed by Board of Directors)

The proposal for the distribution of cash from capital surplus

Explanation:

- i. Pursuant to Article 241 of the Company Act, when a company incurs no loss, it may distribute its capital surplus, in whole or in part, in cash or by issuing new shares to shareholders in proportion to the number of shares being held.
- ii. The company proposes to distribute NT$ 117,845,222 of capital surplus generated from the issuance of share premium to its shareholders as cash at NT$ 0.8414 per share.
- iii. The capital surplus and earnings are expected to be distributed in cash at NT $8 per share (i.e., the capital surplus shall be distributed in cash at NT $0.8414 per share and earnings shall be distributed at NT $7.1586 per share). Distribution shall be based on the number of shares held by the shareholders as listed in the shareholders list on the date of record. The amount distributed shall be paid to denomination of NT $1, where amount less than NT $1 shall be rounded off. The shareholders' meeting is proposed to authorize the Chairman of the board to make the appropriate adjustment for the rounding of amount less than NT $1. The approval of the present proposal by the shareholders' meeting authorizes the Chairman of the board to set a record date for distribution, the date of distribution, and manage relevant matters. In addition, cash distribution shall be calculated based on the number of total outstanding shares in issuance.

iv. Thereafter, if the number of outstanding shares issued is affected by the company's transfer of repurchased treasury stocks to its employees, causing necessary adjustments to shareholders' percentage of distribution, the shareholders' meeting is proposed to authorize the Chairman of the board to make the appropriate adjustment as needed.

v. Approval is respectfully requested.

Resolution: the above proposal was approved as submitted.

momo.com Inc. 2016 Business Report

momo.com Inc. (8454-TW) is a leading virtual retail operator in Taiwan, with operations including momoshop, momomall, TV shopping and catalogue businesses. momo upholds to the corporate mission of “providing various affordable and quality products as well as superior services to improve the life of people” and the four management values in “integrity, friendliness, professionalism, and innovation.” momo offers comprehensive and diverse shopping experience for consumers.

Consolidated revenue for FY2016 totaled NT$ 28.1 bn, an increase of 9.5% YoY and net profit totaled NT$ 1.2 bn. Online shopping’ revenue accounted for more than 70% of total revenue, with an impressive 19.5% YoY increase. As the competitive landscape intensifies, momo will continue to strengthen its services and look to further expand its market share in Taiwan. momo will also look to broaden its global reach and evaluate additional oversea expansion opportunities in order to generate higher shareholder value.

The key operational emphases in 2016 are described below:

1. Strengthening channel integrations:

As the global retail industry shifts towards a new era of reform, previous boundaries that divide different retail formats are become increasingly blurred and inter-channel integration becomes the new trend. In 2016, momo continued to integrate online and TV channel resources, benefitting from cross marketing opportunities from product sourcing, sales, marketing, and operation. momo also continued to leverage big data analysis and rising mobile services to improve its overall operational performance, resulting in a record high revenue after a stellar 9.5% YoY growth.

2. Broaden brand cooperation and develop unique products:

In the intensely competitive retail market, the sound management of product diversity and differentiation can identify new and untapped opportunities. momo aims to introduce major global brands and their product portfolio to Taiwan while co-develops unique and exclusive products with domestic suppliers. momo is then able to fashion new consumer trends and topics through marketing efforts by leverage social network groups and media, and ultimately, strengthen the traction of its customer base and loyalty to the platform.

3. Optimize mobile shopping experience:

As penetration rate of mobile devices continues to rise, an innovative online marketing strategy that incorporates mobile APPs becomes increasingly important. momo strives to optimize user interface by enhancing product search experience and streamlining purchase flow while incorporating audio and video capabilities into mobile APPs. Currently momo has three mobile shopping APPs and revenue generated from mobile devices already accounts for more than 45% of revenue..

4. Upgrade service mechanism:

Broadening customers' shopping experience and improving service quality is the key to maintain the long-term competitiveness of a company. Momo works in collaboration with the Industrial Technology Research Institute to launch an advanced search optimization project and A.I. Customer Service Interface, the latter is scheduled to be launched in 1Q17. Additionally, momo's "Automatic Logistics Center – North District", with a total investment of over NT$ 4 bn, is scheduled to be completed and become operational in 2017. The centralized and automated warehousing capability not only can lower operating and transportation costs but also improve the speed of delivery. The investments to improve frontend/backend services will enable the company to improve user experience for customers.

5. Overseas business:

momo not only maintains a strong foothold in Taiwan but is also looking to aggressively expand into overseas markets. In China, momo founded the Fubon Beijing Gehua Trading Co., Ltd. in May 2011 and invested in Global Home Shopping in June, 2015. Currently Global Home Shopping has access to viewers in over 130 million households in China and generates impressive profitability. In ASEAN, momo invested in TVD-momo, a joint-venture in Thailand that was established in March 2014. TVD-momo has become the second largest TV home shopping operator in Thailand. momo will continue to collaborate with Taiwanese suppliers and look for expansion opportunities in other ASEAN markets in order to duplicate the proven successful model in Taiwan.

Incessant drive for innovation is the key to maintaining the competitiveness of any business. Looking into 2017, momo will continue to develop and integrate innovative technology and business processes into our operation. momo will look to further expand its core competency to provide customers with improving services and create higher shareholder value as a leading enterprise in the industry.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders momo.com Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of momo.com Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC) of the Republic of China (ROC).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants (CPA) and auditing standards generally accepted in the ROC. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the CPA Ethical Standards, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters for the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016 are stated as follows:

Risk of revenue recognition

The Group's primary source of revenue is generated from virtual channels, including TV shopping channels, E-commerce portals and catalogues. Due to the nature of the Group's core sales, the Group offers a wide range of products and services to different customers; the trading quantity is rather high while each transaction is individually low in value and is highly automated through the website and related system. As a result of the Group's business model being highly relying on IT infrastructure and the fact that the Group process, store and transmit large amounts of data through digital and web-based environment, the risk derived from revenue recognition depends on whether the sales amount can be transferred in the IT system appropriately thus ensuring correct timing of revenue recognition. We obtained an understanding and tested the major automatic and manual controls of the related IT system with the assistance of our IT specialists to perform test of details as an audit procedure of sales revenue for the year ended December 31, 2016. The major audit procedures as follows:

1. Verify the details of invoices in the system to check if the sales amount of each invoice is consistent with its shipping notice and sales order.
2. Confirm the completeness and consistency of transmission through IT system by testing the information transferred from front-end system to general ledger system, and further perform tests on whether the Daily Sales Report in the system is consistent with journal entries of revenue each day.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment estimates

Driven by continued growth in both revenue and operation, the Group's capital expenditures have increased as well. The carrying value of property, plant and equipment was $2,921,160 thousand, accounted for 29% of the consolidated assets as of December 31, 2016. At the end of each reporting period, management will assess whether there is any indication that the property, plant and equipment may be impaired in accordance with IAS 36 - Impairment of Assets; if there is an indication that an asset may be impaired, then the asset's recoverable amount should be calculated. The Group evaluates the recoverable amount of the aforementioned asset of its cash-generating unit, since the evaluation requires a number of assumptions and estimates, which will directly affect the recognition of impairment losses; the impairment assessment, in our professional judgement, is one of the key audit matters for the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016. We carried out procedures to understand and walkthrough the design and implement of the Group's internal process for impairment assessment. Additionally, we performed the audit procedures as follows:

1. Obtain the Group's valuation report of impairment indicators regarding each cash generating unit.
2. Evaluate and Consult with our specialists the appropriateness of management's judgments regarding identification of impairment, as well as the assumptions and the Group's sensitivity analyses, including the allocation of cash generating units, the future cash flows and the applied discount rates, which are used to determine the recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment.

Other Matter

We have also audited the parent company only financial statements of momo.com Inc. as of and for the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 on which we have issued an unmodified report.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and IFRS, IAS, IFRIC, and SIC endorsed and issued into effect by the FSC of the ROC, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including audit committee) are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the ROC will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the ROC, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with statements that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of 2016 consolidated financial statements and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Li-Wen Kuo and Wen-Chin Lin.

Procedures for Elections of Directors and Supervisors (prior to the proposed revision)

Article 1: To ensure a just, fair and open election of directors and supervisors, these Procedures are adopted pursuant to Articles 21 and 41 of the “Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies.”

Article 2: Except as otherwise provided by laws and regulations or by the articles of incorporation of the Company, elections of directors and supervisors shall be conducted in accordance with these Procedures.

Article 3: The overall composition of the board of directors shall be taken into consideration in the selection of this Company’s directors. The composition of the board of directors shall be determined in general by the knowledge, skills and qualities required for performing the duties. The overall abilities advised for the directors include the following:

1. The ability to make judgments about operations.
2. Accounting and financial analysis ability.
3. Business management ability.
4. Crisis management ability.
5. Knowledge of the industry.
6. International market perspectives.
7. Leadership ability.
8. Decision-making ability.

More than half of the directors shall be persons who have neither a spousal relationship nor a relationship within the second degree of kinship with any other director.

Article 4: Supervisors of the Company shall meet the following qualifications:

1. Integrity and a practical attitude.
2. Impartial judgment.
3. Professional knowledge.
4. Broad experience.
5. Ability to read financial statements.

The appointments of supervisors shall be made with reference to the provisions on the independence contained in the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies, in order to select appropriate supervisors to help strengthen the Company’s risk management and control of finance and operations. At least one supervisor position or one director position must be held by a person having neither a spousal relationship nor a relationship within the second degree of kinship with any other supervisor or with any director. A supervisor may not serve concurrently as the director, managerial officer, or any other employee of the Company and must be domiciled in the Republic of China to be able to promptly fulfill the functions of supervisor.

Article 5: The qualifications for the independent directors of the Company shall comply with Articles 2, 3 and 4 of the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies. The election of independent directors of the Company shall comply with Articles 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies, and shall be conducted in accordance with Article 24 of the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies.

Article 6: Elections of independent directors at the Company shall be conducted in accordance with the candidate nomination system and procedures set out in Article 192-1 of the Company Act. When the number of directors falls below five due to the dismissal of a director for any reason, the Company shall hold a by-election to fill the vacancy at its next shareholders meeting. But when the number of directors falls short by one third of the total number prescribed in the Company's articles of incorporation, the Company shall call a special shareholders meeting within 60 days from the date of occurrence to hold a by-election to fill the vacancies.

When the number of independent directors falls below that required under the proviso of Article 14-2, Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation rules governing the review of listings, or subparagraph 8 of the "Standards for Determining Unsuitability for TPEX Listing under Article 10, Paragraph 1 of the Taipei Exchange Rules Governing the Review of Securities for Trading on the TPEX" by Taipei Exchange, a by-election shall be held at the next shareholders meeting to fill the vacancy. When all independent directors are dismissed, a special shareholder meeting shall be called within 60 days from the date of occurrence to hold a by-election to fill the vacancies.

When the supervisors are dismissed for any reason which leads to the number of supervisors falling below the provisions prescribed in the Company's article of incorporation, the Company shall hold a by-election to fill the vacancy at its next shareholders meeting. Nonetheless when all supervisors are dismissed, a special shareholders meeting shall be called within 60 days from the date of occurrence to hold a by-election to fill the vacancies.

Article 7: The cumulative voting method shall be used for election of the directors and supervisors at the Company. Each share will have voting rights in number equal to the directors or supervisors to be elected and may be cast for a single candidate or split among multiple candidates.

Article 8: The board of directors shall prepare ballots for directors and supervisors in number of weights corresponding to the directors or supervisors to be elected, which shall then be distributed to the attending shareholders at the shareholders meeting. Attendance card numbers printed on the ballots may be used instead of recording the names of voting shareholders.

Article 9: The number of directors and supervisors will be specified in the Company's articles of incorporation, with voting rights separately calculated for independent and non-independent director positions. Those receiving ballots representing the highest numbers of voting rights will be elected sequentially according to their respective numbers of votes. When two or more persons receive the same number of votes, thus exceeding the specified number of positions, they shall draw lots to determine the winner, with the chairman drawing lots on behalf of any person(s) not in attendance.

Article 10: Before the election begins, the chairman shall appoint a number of persons with shareholder status to perform the respective duties of vote monitoring and counting personnel. The ballot boxes shall be prepared by the board of directors and publicly checked by the vote monitoring personnel before voting commences.

Article 11: If a candidate is a shareholder, a voter must enter the candidate's account name and shareholder account number in the "candidate" column of the ballot; for a non-shareholder, the voter shall enter the candidate's full name and identity card number. However, when the candidate is a governmental organization or juristic-person shareholder, the name of the governmental organization or juristic-person shareholder shall be entered in the column for the candidate's account name in the ballot paper, or both the name of the governmental organization or juristic-person shareholder, and the name of its representative may be entered. When there are multiple representatives, the names of each respective representative shall be entered.

Article 12: A ballot is invalid under any of the following circumstances:

1. The ballot was not prepared by the board of directors.
2. A blank ballot is placed in the ballot box.
3. The writing is unclear and indecipherable or has been altered.
4. The candidate whose name entered in the ballot is a shareholder, but the candidate's account name and shareholder account number do not conform with those given in the shareholder register, or the candidate whose name entered in the ballot is a non-shareholder, and a cross-check shows that the candidate's name and identity card number do not match.
5. Other words or marks are entered in addition to the candidate's account name (name) or the shareholder account number (identity card number) and the number of voting rights allotted.
6. The name of the candidate entered in the ballot is identical to that of another shareholder, but no shareholder account number or identity card number is provided in the ballot for identification of such individual.

Article 13: The voting rights shall be calculated on site immediately after the end of the poll, and the results of the calculation and the list of persons elected as directors or supervisors shall be announced by the chairman on the site.

Article 14: The board of directors of the Company shall issue notifications to the persons elected as directors or supervisors.

Article 15: These Procedures shall be implemented after the approval by a shareholders meeting. The same procedures apply to any revision.
